Pastor's Corner

From a Sermon by Saint Caesarius of Arles, bishop
(Sermo 25,1 : CCL 103, 111-112)

Divine and human mercy

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. My brothers and sisters, sweet is the thought of mercy, but even more so is mercy itself. It is what all men hope for, but unfortunately, not what all men deserve. For while all men wish to receive it, only a few are willing to give it.

How can a man ask for himself what he refuses to give to another? If he expects to receive any mercy in heaven, he should give mercy on earth. Do we all desire to receive mercy? Let us make mercy our patroness now, and she will free us in the world to come. Yes, there is mercy in heaven, but the road to it is paved by our merciful acts on earth. As Scripture says: Lord, your mercy is in heaven.

There is, therefore, an earthly as well as heavenly mercy, that is to say, a human and a divine mercy. Human mercy has compassion on the miseries of the poor. Divine mercy grants forgiveness of sins. Whatever human mercy bestows here on earth, divine mercy will return to us in our homeland. In this life God feels cold and hunger in all who are stricken with poverty; for, remember, he once said: What you have done to the least of my brothers you have done to me. Yes, God who sees fit to give his mercy in heaven wishes it to be a reality here on earth.

What kind of people are we? When God gives, we wish to receive, but when he begs, we refuse to give. Remember, it was Christ who said: I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat. When the poor are starving, Christ too hungers. Do not neglect to improve the unhappy conditions of the poor, if you wish to ensure that your own sins be forgiven you. Christ hungers now, my brethren; it is he who deigns to hunger and thirst in the persons of the poor. And what he will return in heaven tomorrow is what he receives here on earth today.

What do you wish for, what do you pray for, my dear brothers and sisters, when you come to church? Is it mercy? How can it be anything else? Show mercy, then, while you are on earth, and mercy will be shown to you in heaven. A poor person asks you for something; you ask God for something. He begs for a morsel of food; you beg for eternal life. Give to the beggar so that you may merit to receive from Christ. For he it is who says: Give and it will be given to you. It baffles me that you have the impudence to ask for what you do not want to give. Give when you come to church. Give to the poor. Give them whatever your resources will allow.

ROMAN CATHOLIC
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pope Pius VII canonically erected the Diocese of Charleston on July 11, 1820. This month, we will celebrate the bicentennial of its historic founding. To give glory to God and to mark this momentous occasion, the diocese has organized liturgies, conferences, events, displays, videos, and more that have taken new life in the post-COVID-19 world. We are adjusting our celebration to meet our new normal and are excited to celebrate this momentous occasion for the remainder of 2020. For these events, we must rely on donations which can be made during a special collection which will be taken up August 9. These funds will help commemorate the important accomplishments in our history and inspire South Carolina's Catholics to unite as one. Please note that these funds are not associated with the Bicentennial Campaign and will be used specifically for the above stated purposes.

We have much to celebrate in a state that offers countless stories of faith-filled men and women who have served and sacrificed, and of the ministry of our great Church. Our first bishop, Most Rev. John England, started out with a large territory comprised of Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. He traveled throughout the territory and immediately began to make disciples and history.

We continue to be a diocese of firsts, we had the first Catholic Church in the Carolinas and Georgia, the first important American Catholic theoretician of freedom of religion and separation of church and state, one of the first permanent deacons to be ordained in the United States, and the first Catholic newspaper in the country to name but a few.

Please consider donating to the August 9th Special Collection to help us implement a meaningful enterprise for everyone. Your generosity will assist in uniting the people of God as they join together in celebrating our history, our present and our future.

Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Robert E. Guglielmone

A Message from our Bishop

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is my profound joy to share with you the inaugural newsletter of the Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina, a foundation whose purpose and mission is to support the religious, educational, and charitable programs throughout the Diocese of Charleston.

Though the recent months have proven tumultuous for us all, our Church has adapted and persevered to bring the Word of God and the comfort of our Lord Jesus to all who have been impacted by sickness, unemployment, racial injustice, and worry. It is my prayer that the work the Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina (CCFSC) is doing to strengthen our communities in Christ can be a source of inspiration and light in these unfortunate and uncertain times.

As 2020 marks the 200th year since the founding of our Diocese, the Bicentennial Campaign was launched to ensure our parishes, missions, social programs, and ministries across the state are prepared for the next century. These funds are the lifeblood of the CCFSC, and I am pleased to report that this effort has been an overwhelming success. This semi-annual newsletter will serve as the messenger for all the good that is being done through your generosity.

May God's Blessings Be Yours,

+ Robert E. Guglielmone

Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone
Bishop of Charleston

Sharing God's Grace

The Bicentennial Campaign has been an historic undertaking that owes its success to the devotion and generosity of thousands of faithful families from all across our state. We are pleased to report that over 12,000 Catholic families have made gifts to the Bicentennial Campaign since 2018, resulting in over $62 million raised, which is 104% of our $60 million goal. These funds enable the Catholic Community Foundation of SC's purpose and we are deeply thankful for the support provided by South Carolina Catholics.

Over 50% of the overall funds raised will be provided back to the parishes and missions to meet their critical needs. The remaining share will be allocated and provided to the elements that will strengthen the Diocesan programs across our seven deaneries while also sustaining our growing Diocese for generations to come.

This newsletter will provide semi-annual updates to our Diocese about how the funds are being administered by the Catholic Community Foundation of SC to the parishes, programs, schools, and endowments that will evangelize our brothers and sisters and enable us to act as the hands of feet of Christ.

Success Across the Deaneries

AIKEN

Good Shepherd Catholic Church in McCormick, SC ran a very successful Bicentennial Campaign in 2019, raising 126% of their $220,000 goal from nearly 40% of their registered parishioners. With security upgrades for their campus at the forefront of their needs, the parish has since used their campaign funds to implement the first phase of their Facility Security Plan, which will ensure the safety of the buildings, parishioners, and staff of Good Shepherd as they gather to worship Jesus Christ.

BEAUFORT

St. Anthony Catholic Church in Ridgeland, SC is the spiritual home to multiple diverse communities in South Carolina's Lowcountry. In early 2019, the parish came together to raise over 200% of its Bicentennial Campaign target, allowing them the means to conduct repairs, modernize their campus facilities, and increase comfortability for parishioners and guests. A flourishing parish such as St. Anthony's serves as a shining example of the Bicentennial Campaign bringing a parish family together to address their church's significant needs.

CHARLESTON

The Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Charleston, SC stands as the "mother church" of the Diocese of Charleston. After being destroyed in a fire in 1861, a slow rebuild took place, but a lack of funding kept crucial design elements such as the steeple and interior paint from being finished. Numerous initiatives throughout the years have helped upkeep the church to its originally-intended state, however a major, much-needed rejuvenation project was initiated using Bicentennial Campaign funds in late 2019. Once complete, the nearly $2,000,000 project will exhibit and emphasize the beautiful elements of the Cathedral as it was originally conceptualized.

Our first steps

Living the Gospel Through Social Outreach

Catholic Charities of South Carolina promotes self-sufficiency and strives to break the cycle of poverty in South Carolina by serving our neighbors in need. Strengthening our outreach to individuals stricken by homelessness, food insecurity, unemployment, mental illness, and inadequate access to healthcare is what led to the creation of the Outreach Program Fund. The CCFSC is pleased to provide grants to the Outreach Program Fund for the following initiatives that enable Catholic Charities to act as the Body of Christ:

Food Pantry Operations

Catholic Charities currently operates 5 food pantries statewide (Greenville, Gloverville, Hardeeville, Charleston, Conway), and has identified a pressing need for an additional location in Columbia. Since the rise of COVID-19 in March 2020, client demand has increased by 50%, and the resources of several locations were quickly depleted. The CCFSC has granted $100,000 to complete the much-needed Columbia facility and to ensure these crucial pantries remain stocked with food for those who have been gravely impacted by hardship.

Clean of Heart Mobile Ministry

This pilot ministry seeks to implement a nationwide best practice by taking its shower and laundry ministry to the homeless populations that are commonly on the move. Endorsed by regional pastors and local government authorities, Greenville-Spartanburg will be the launching point for this ministry that will serve the growing number of tent communities across our state. $75,000 has been granted by the CCFSC to implement this important new initiative by Clean of Heart.

One Family in Faith.

Our first steps

Forming Catholics to Believe in the Gospel

Catholic schools need to remain affordable, accessible, and attainable for all who value the opportunity to be educated in an academic environment that centers on a relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. The Diocese of Charleston School Modernization Project seeks to provide 28 schools across our state with modern internet infrastructure that supports each school's fully-enrolled capacity for the next 7-10 years. The CCFSC will disburse $200,000 to this essential project that maximizes our students' access and connectivity to the internet and 21st century educational and communication platforms. The project aims to be fully-implemented in 2021.

Totals Accurate as of June 26, 2020.

COLUMBIA
Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Orangeburg, SC established itself as one of the earliest examples of success in the beginning of the Bicentennial Campaign. In 2018, Holy Trinity and its mission church, St. Theresa in Springfield, both exceeded over 220% of their campaign targets, and set the stage for the successes other parishes would enjoy. Since their campaigns, Holy Trinity has begun to implement a viable youth ministry, where the youth of the Orangeburg area can learn and grow in Christ. At St. Theresa, their funds have allowed for renovations to the church and parish hall to take place.

GREENVILLE
St. Augustine Catholic Church in Union, SC was the first parish to surpass 100% of its Bicentennial Campaign target in 2020. With under 40 registered families, St. Augustine carried the successful momentum that many other smaller parishes have experienced since 2018. As funds begin to be returned to St. Augustine, the parish intends to maintain a "rainy day" fund to allow for a quick response to any emergency maintenance situation.

MYRTLE BEACH
Precious Blood of Christ in Pawley's Island, SC had a robust list of needs they hoped to address through the Bicentennial Campaign. Recognizing that more than half of the raised funds would be returned to Precious Blood if 125% of their target was achieved, the parish executed an overwhelmingly successful campaign, and raised over $1,000,000. This achievement allows the parish to take the initial steps in adding new storage space for their parish outreach kitchen, as well as other campus improvements.

ROCK HILL
St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church in Lancaster, SC has begun the process of bringing in architects to address the various church renovations the parish would like to conduct. With a Bicentennial Target of $130,000, the parish was motivated to exceed this figure to ensure more funds would come back for these renovations. In late 2019, St. Catherine completed their campaign with 120% raised and the excitement of their future projects becoming reality.

Auschwitz, 1941. One of the prisoners, Jan, escapes from the German concentration camp while working at a gravel pit. Thanks to the help of kind-hearted people, he finds shelter.
