PASTOR'S CORNER*From the Imitation of Christ

(Lib II, cap, 2-3)

On humility and peace

Do not care much who is with you and who is against you; but make it your greatest care that God is with you in everything you do.

Have a good conscience, and God will defend you securely; no one can hurt you if God wishes to help you.

If you know how to suffer in silence, you will surely receive God's help. Since he knows best the time and the way to set you free, resign yourself to him, for God helps you and frees you from all confusion.

It is often good for us, and helps us to remain humble, if others know our weaknesses and confront us with them.

When a man humbles himself for his faults, he more easily pleases others and mollifies those he has angered.

God protects and frees a humble man; he loves and consoles a humble man; he favors a humble man; he showers him with graces; then, after his suffering, God raises him up to glory.

He reveals his secrets to a humble man and in his kindness invitingly draws that man to himself. When a humble man is brought to confusion, he experiences peace, because he stands firm in God and not in this world. Do not think that you have made any progress unless you feel that you are the lowest of all men.

Above all things, keep peace within yourself, then you will be able to create peace among others. It is better to be peaceful than learned.

The passionate man often thinks evil of a good man and easily believes the worst; a good and peaceful man turns all things to good.

A man who lives at peace suspects no one. But a man who is tense and agitated by evil is troubled with all kinds of suspicions; he is never at peace with himself, nor does he permit others to be at peace.

He often speaks when he should be silent, and he fails to say what would be truly useful.

He is well aware of the obligations of others but neglects his own.

So be zealous first of all with yourself, and then you will be more justified in expressing zeal for your neighbor.

You are good at excusing and justifying your own deeds, and yet you will not listen to the excuses of others. It would be more just to accuse yourself and excuse your neighbor.

If you wish others to put up with you, first put up with them.

Catholic Book of the Month

In January, we will begin a monthly Catholic book study. We will read one book per month and come together to discuss the book. There is no requirement to attend monthly. Come whenever the book of the month piques your interest. Each month there will be 2 sessions: 3:00 pm and 6:30 pm on the chosen date.

Our first meeting is January 28th and the selection is Fatima in Lucia's own words.

"The original 1936-1941 Memoirs of Sr. Lucia, the last surviving Fatima visionary. In these diary-like accounts, Lucia shared moving insights into the lives of her cousins, who are now St. Francisco and St. Jacinta Marto, their increasing love and sacrifices for God and neighbor, her own family experiences before and after the apparitions, the deaths of her beloved father and cousins, and how Our Lady forever changed all of their lives."
Goodreads.com

We have 2 physical used copies of the first book, Fatima in Lucia's own words, in the parish library (call the parish office to reserve). If you would like to read it using an electronic copy, here are 2 possible links – the PDF can be downloaded to be read on your computer or a hand held copy can be purchased at Amazon.

or the book is available on Kindle at Amazon.

All are welcome! Please let Jan Heithaus at the parish office (864) 225-5341 know if you will be attending and at which time so that we may plan for enough space to properly social distance.
