PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

PASTOR'S CORNER

From a conference to her spiritual daughters by Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Our daily work is to do the will of God

I will tell you what is my own great help. I once read or heard that an interior life means but the continuation of our Savior's life in us; that the great object of all his mysteries is to merit for us the grace of his interior life and communicate it to us, it being the end of his mission to lead us into the sweet land of promise, a life of constant union with himself. And what was the first rule of our dear Savior's life? You know it was to do his Father's will. Well, then, the first end I propose in our daily work is to do the will of God; secondly, to do it in the manner he wills; and thirdly, to do it because it is his will.

I know what his will is by those who direct me; whatever they bid me do, if it is ever so small in itself, is the will of God for me. Then do it in the manner he wills it, not sewing an old thing as if it were new, or a new thing as if it were old; not fretting because the oven is too hot, or in a fuss because it is too cold. You understand—not flying and driving because you are hurried, not creeping like a snail because no one pushes you. Our dear Savior was never in extremes. The third object is to do his will because God wills it, that is, to be ready to quit at any moment and to do anything else to which you may be called.

You think it very hard to lead a life of such restraint unless you keep your eye of faith always open. Perseverance is a great grace. To go on gaining and advancing every day, we must be resolute, and bear and suffer as our blessed forerunners did. Which of them gained heaven without a struggle?

What are our real trials? By what name shall we call them? One cuts herself out a cross of pride; another, one of causeless discontent; another, one of restless impatience or peevish fretfulness. But is the whole any better than children's play if looked at with the common eye of faith? Yet we know certainly that our God calls us to a holy life, that he gives us every grace, every abundant grace; and though we are so weak of ourselves, this grace is able to carry us through every obstacle and difficulty.

But we lack courage to keep a continual watch over nature, and therefore, year after year, with our thousand graces, multiplied resolutions, and fair promises, we run around in a circle of misery and imperfections. After a long time in the service of God, we come nearly to the point from whence we set out, and perhaps with even less ardor for penance and mortification than when we began our consecration to him.

You are now in your first setout. Be above the vain fears of nature and efforts of your enemy. You are children of eternity. Your immortal crown awaits you, and the best of Fathers waits there to reward your duty and love. You may indeed sow here in tears, but you may be sure there to reap in joy.

FREE – A NEW VIRTUAL SEMINAR SERIES PRESENTED BY FR. LONGENECKER

TAKING ROOT IN CATHOLIC CULTURE

SEVEN SEMINARS WITH CATHOLIC LEADERS
PRESENTED BY FR. DWIGHT LONGENECKER

God builds with grace on the nature he created and redeemed – “Behold, I make all things new!” He, the master craftsman, has the power to transform our everyday world, and he asks us to be his apprentices and journeymen. The result is Catholic Culture, a sign of the triumph of Easter which is both now and not yet.

So take heart and take root in Catholic culture!

Our Lady of the Rosary Parish invites you to register today for a FREE virtual seminar series. Our pastor, Fr. Dwight Longenecker, will converse with a different Catholic leader each Wednesday evening from 7:30-8:30 PM for a total of seven live, virtual seminars:

Seminar 1: State of the Communion: Catholic Media Today (April 14)

Seminar 2: The Crucified Hands of Christ: Attending to Civic Pain (April 21)

Seminar 3: The Word Made Text: Catholic Contributions to Literature (April 28)

Seminar 4: Building the Kingdom: Catholic Contributions to Architecture (May 5)

Seminar 5: Agony unto Ecstasy: Catholic Contributions to the Visual Arts (May 12)

Seminar 6: Making the Right Movies: Catholics in Film & Television (May 19)

Seminar 7: The Sacred Song of the Liturgy (May 26)

Fr. Longenecker’s guests include Fr. Jay Scott Newman, Glenn Arbery, Duncan Stroik, Elizabeth Lev, Ed Pentin, Barbara Nicolosi, and others who are making a positive contribution to Catholic culture today and who can speak to the broader picture of how the Holy Spirit is transforming our world through the Church.

Participants who register below will receive Zoom invitations the day of each seminar. You will also receive Father Longenecker’s recommendations for optional pre- and post-seminar readings. During the live sessions, you will be able to submit questions and comments. The seminar is provided to any and all registrants at no cost.

Register by sending an email to takingrootincatholicculture@gmail.com.

Spread the word! Please pass on this invitation to friends, especially those who are entering the Church at Easter. Youth groups and senior groups alike can benefit from these conversations, as can any Catholics you know who are feeling discouraged.
