PASTOR'S CORNER

SAINT WHO?

Saints Who Served in Times of Plague and Pandemic

This week we continue to share timely articles from the Magnificat about Saints who Served in Times of Plague and Pandemic. The publishers of Magnificat have given us permission to share these articles previously published in their January Magnificat and have sent us 50 free sample copies of the May Magnificat for our parishioners to examine.

Magnificat is currently offering special 3-month trial subscriptions to Magnificat for just $10. This and other great offers are available at www.magnificat.com/trial. Orders processed during May will begin with the July issue; however, print subscriptions to Magnificat include immediate access to the digital content of Magnificat online or via the Magnificat US Edition App.

Our second Saint Who Served in Times of Plague and Pandemic:

Saint Damien de Vauster

Priest (+ 1889)

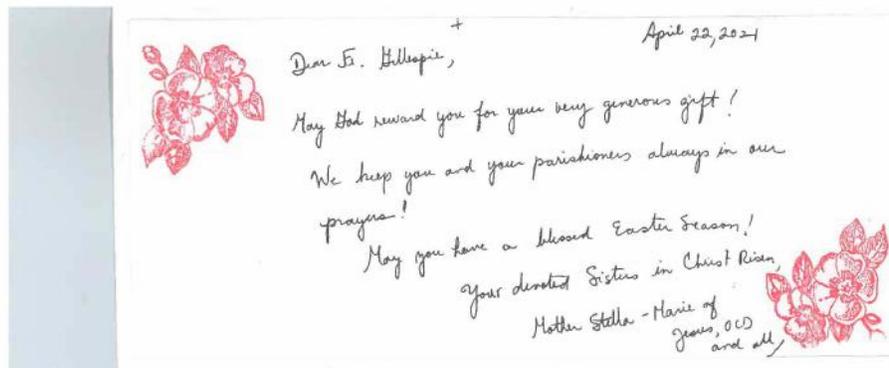

Feast: May 10

A sturdy Belgian farm boy, Damien made his vows in the Congregation of the Sacred heart of Jesus and Mary at the age of twenty. Three years later, he went on a mission to Hawaii, where he was a pastor to the natives, among whom the scourge of leprosy was spreading. When a call was made for a priest to live among the lepers quarantined on the island of Molokai, Damien volunteered on the spot.

He met a human wasteland. The lepers' grave physical suffering was compounded by the anguish of being wrenched from their families and brought to a forgotten place. Many lived in squalor and had turned to drunkenness and prostitution. Damien sought to better their lives in every way: he prayed over them, anointed them, taught them, and sang with them. He used his strength to plow gardens and build houses. But one of his earliest building tasks was an extension on a chapel: for the Eucharist, perpetually exposed, was the source of Damien's strength.

Damien set aside many hygienic restrictions. He ate with the lepers, dipping his fingers in the common food bowl to show them that he was one with them. When he contracted the disease, he knew he was at last united with his beloved people. "The joy and contentment of heart that the Sacred Hearts are lavishing upon me make me think myself the happiest missionary in the world," he confessed toward the end.

A Thank you from the Fairfield Carmelites:

Dear Fr. Gillespie,

May God reward you for your very generous gift! We keep you and your parishioners always in our prayers! May you have a blessed Easter Season!

Your devoted Sisters In Christ Risen, Mother Stella - Marie of Jesus, OCD and all.

GET "THE CHOSEN" APP

If you've already got "The Chosen" app and are casting it to your streaming device, you can stop reading.

If you've got any questions about it or haven't made the switch yet, this is important.

I know you might be slow to embrace new technology; I know I am. But we're building a platform outside the system, and very soon (as in, very soon) the only way to watch the show will be on our app (or thechosen.tv). That said, besides it being free, we want it to be as easy and smooth as possible. So here's how:

(QUESTIONS? PROBLEMS? Go to thechosen.tv and click the help icon in the top right corner.)

Downloading the app:

1. Go to your Google Play or Apple app store & search for the Chosen.
2. Press the download button & wait for the app to download.

Watching a video on your TV:

1. Make sure your streaming device (Roku, Apple TV, Firestick, Chromecast) is on and connected to the internet.
2. Open the Chosen app on your phone & select your video.
3. Press the 'Send To TV' button or the "cast icon" in the top right corner & select your device.
4. Press play.

If you're having any trouble:

1. Make sure your phone & device are connected to the same Wi-Fi.
2. Close & reopen your app.
3. Ensure your app is updated (go to the app store to check).
4. Press the 'Send To TV' button or cast icon, select "Can't find your device?" and go through the steps.
5. Go to thechosen.tv and click the help icon in the bottom right corner.

Hope this helps! And please know our engineering team works around the clock to improve your experience, so it'll only get better.

- Dallas Jenkins, Director of the Chosen

Knights of Columbus
Father Francis A. Friend Council 8295, Anderson, South Carolina

Dear Family, Friends and Parishioners of Saint Joseph’s Catholic Church and St. Mary of the Angels Catholic Church. Many of you have asked, “What do the Knights of Columbus do?” This note has three purposes: 1 – To inform you of all those we help annually; 2 – To explain what we do to make it happen, and; 3 - To invite all Catholic men who may not be members to call and find out what we are about.

The Knights of Columbus Council 8295 of Anderson supports many charitable organizations and activities throughout the year. We are Catholic men who work diligently to demonstrate our faith supporting our basic KofC principles of charity, unity, and fraternity. You probably know many of us, you have seen us working at events, you may even have participated—but few of you actually have a good idea of the many people and organizations we assist each year, mostly in the Anderson area, and how we obtain the funds to do that.

Take a look at what we do and give us a call to join the Knights of Columbus or find out how you can help. You do not need to attend all meetings or participate in all activities but you will be supporting your faith and parish.
