Good Morning All,

Another beautiful, busy weekend at our church and around Anderson and alot is related to food!

~ This weekend we welcome Fr. Brian Mullady, OP who will begin the Parish Mission beginning on Monday through Thursday of next week. However, Fr. Mullady came in early and will be at all the Masses this weekend too! Fr. Mullady will have items for sale (see flyers attached) related to the Parish Mission as well as books and USB sticks with some of his sermons! Items are limited so shop early!

~From the Men's Club "Oktoberfest. Tonight. Carry-outs available starting at 5:30. In room dining starts at 6:10. Tickets available at the door." Don't miss out on the good food! Desserts from Catholic Women Serving too!

~Community event - Greek Festival. Mini Greek-Mediterranean Festival – The Anderson Greek Festival \(greekmedfest.com\) Open on Sunday so German food on Saturday and Greek food on Sunday!

~Knights of Columbus "Fish Fry & A Movie" tickets on sale after all the Masses for November 5th.

~ Bulletin attached.

1. Today's Readings: Saturday of the Twenty-ninth Week in Ordinary Time | USCCB

2. The RE Corner with Jan Heithaus: St. John Capistrano was a very effective Franciscan preacher in the 14th century. The largest churches could not hold the crowds, so he preached in the public squares—at Brescia in Italy, he preached to a crowd of 126,000. When he was not preaching, John was writing tracts against heresy of every kind. He was sent on mission by 2 popes to kings and rulers and also worked on the reform of the Franciscan order.

3. Quote of the Day:

~ "Those who are called to the table of the Lord must glow with the brightness that comes from the good example of a praiseworthy and blameless life. They must learn from the eminent teacher, Jesus Christ." St. John of Capistrano

Pray the Rosary Daily! ~ Fr. Gillespie

Pastor's Corner

Listen to the Saints...

From a work by Saint Teresa of Avila, virgin

(Opusc. De libro vitae, cap 22, 6-7, 14)

Let us always be mindful of Christ's love

If Christ Jesus dwells in a man as his friend and noble leader, that man can endure all things, for Christ helps and strengthens us and never abandons us. He is a true friend. And I clearly see that if we expect to please him and receive an abundance of his graces, God desires that these graces must come to us from the hands of Christ, through his most sacred humanity, in which God takes delight.

Many, many times I have perceived this through experience. The Lord has told it to me. I have definitely seen that we must enter by this gate if we wish his Sovereign Majesty to reveal to us great and hidden mysteries. A person should desire no other path, even if he is at the summit of contemplation; on this road he walks safely. All blessings come to us through our Lord. He will teach us, for in beholding his life we find that he is the best example.

What more do we desire from such a good friend at our side? Unlike our friends in the world, he will never abandon us when we are troubled or distressed. Blessed is the one who truly loves him and always keeps him near. Let us consider the glorious Saint Paul: it seems that no other name fell from his lips than that of Jesus, because the name of Jesus was fixed and embedded in his heart. Once I had come to understand this truth, I carefully considered the lives of some of the saints, the great contemplatives, and found that they took no other path: Francis, Anthony of Padua, Bernard, Catherine of Siena. A person must walk along this path in freedom, placing himself in God's hands. If God should desire to raise us to the position of one who is an intimate and shares his secrets, we ought to accept this gladly.

Whenever we think of Christ we should recall the love that led him to bestow on us so many graces and favors, and also the great love God showed in giving us in Christ a pledge of his love; for love calls for love in return. Let us strive to keep this always before our eyes and to rouse ourselves to love him. For if at some time the Lord should grant us the grace of impressing his love on our hearts, all will become easy for us and we shall accomplish great things quickly and without effort.

“We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard”

“No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído”

[ACTS 4:20]

[HECH 4:20]

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

UN DOMINGO PARA TODO EL MUNDO

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20) He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel."

El mensaje de Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de esta año reflexiona sobre el tema: "No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído" (Hechos 4:20). Nos recuerda que: "como Cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros," como "recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso baptismal de ser apóstoles generosos y gozosos del Evangelio."

PRESENTS

JOSEPH PEARCE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2021

7:00 PM IN THE CHURCH

"THE QUEST FOR SHAKESPEARE: REVEALING HIS CATHOLICISM"

Shakespeare is arguably the greatest writer who ever lived. Now the secular culture is facing the shocking evidence that the Bard of Avon was a lifelong Catholic who resisted the anti-Catholic persecution of Elizabethan England and who weaved his Catholicism into his plays and poems. Discover the evidence that proves beyond any reasonable doubt that Shakespeare was a Catholic.

A native of England, Joseph Pearce is an internationally acclaimed author of many books, which include bestsellers such as:

The Quest for Shakespeare
Tolkien: Man and Myth
The Unmasking of Oscar Wilde
C. S. Lewis and The Catholic Church
Literary Converts
Wisdom and Innocence: A Life of G.K. Chesterton
Solzhenitsyn: A Soul in Exile
Old Thunder: A Life of Hilaire Belloc

His books have been published and translated into Spanish, Portuguese, French, Dutch, Italian, Korean, Mandarin, Croatian and Polish.

He has hosted two 13-part television series about Shakespeare on EWTN and has also written and presented documentaries on EWTN on the Catholicism of The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit. His verse drama, Death Comes for the War Poets, was performed off-Broadway to critical acclaim. He has participated and lectured at a wide variety of international and literary events at major colleges and universities in the U.S., Canada, Britain, Europe, Africa, and South America.

His personal website is <http://www.jpearce.co>

St. John Capistrano

It has been said the Christian saints are the world's greatest optimists. Not blind to the existence and consequences of evil, they base their confidence on the power of Christ's redemption. The power of conversion through Christ extends not only to sinful people but also to calamitous events.

Imagine being born in the 14th century. One-third of the population and nearly 40 percent of the clergy were wiped out by the bubonic plague. The Western Schism split the Church with two or three claimants to the Holy See at one time. England and France were at war. The city-states of Italy were constantly in conflict. No wonder that gloom dominated the spirit of the culture and the times.

John Capistrano was born in 1386. His education was thorough. His talents and success were great. When he was 26 he was made governor of Perugia. Imprisoned after a battle against the Malatestas, he resolved to change his way of life completely. At the age of 30 he entered the Franciscan novitiate and was ordained a priest four years later.

John's preaching attracted great throngs at a time of religious apathy and confusion. He and 12 Franciscan brethren were received in the countries of central Europe as angels of God. They were instrumental in reviving a dying faith and devotion.

The Franciscan Order itself was in turmoil over the interpretation and observance of the Rule of St. Francis. Through John's tireless efforts and his expertise in law, the heretical Fraticelli were suppressed and the "Spirituals" were freed from interference in their stricter observance.

John of Capistrano helped bring about a brief reunion with the Greek and Armenian Churches.

When the Turks captured Constantinople in 1453, John was commissioned to preach a crusade for the defense of Europe. Gaining little response in Bavaria and Austria, he decided to concentrate his efforts in Hungary. He led the army to Belgrade. Under the great General John Hunyadi, they gained an overwhelming victory, and the siege of Belgrade was lifted. Worn out by his superhuman efforts, Capistrano was an easy prey to an infection after the battle. He died on October 23, 1456.
