

October 25, 2021

Good Morning All,

Our Parish Mission, Grace Explained, begins today, and runs through Thursday evening. The schedule can be found on page 3 of this week's bulletin (attached again for your reference). Fr. Mullady has 50 years as a practicing priest. Please take advantage of his knowledge by attending either the morning or evening session!

1. Today's Readings: Monday of the Thirtieth Week in Ordinary Time | USCCB

2. The RE Corner with Jan Heithaus: All this week, Fr. Brian Mullady will be our retreat speaker. Talks will be morning and evening and last about 30-40 minutes. Please come!

Father Mullady was a guest on the Journey Home program a few years ago. For today's email, we are including a link to the show (56 minutes). This show is weekly on EWTN and each week interviews a different guest about their journey into or within the Catholic Faith. Most guests are converts and share the story of how God brought them to become Catholic. It helps us to gain more appreciation and knowledge of our beautiful Faith. Live Monday nights at 8 pm. You can find older shows on EWTN.com and YouTube.com.

3. Quote of the Day:

~"Indeed, the glory to which God raises the soul through grace is so great that even the natural beauty of the Angels is as nothing compared with it. The Angels themselves wonder how a soul that was sunk in the desert of this sinful earth and robbed of all natural beauty can be clothed with such a wonderful splendor. But this wonder of the Angels will not surprise us when we see and hear that God Himself considers the beauty of grace with astonishment and rapture. For how otherwise can we explain what He says in The Canticle of Canticles to the soul: 'How beautiful art thou, my love, how beautiful art thou!' (Cant. 4:1)."

Pray the Rosary Daily! ~ Fr. Gillespie

Pastor's Corner

Listen to the Saints...

From a work by Saint Teresa of Avila, virgin

(Opusc. De libro vitae, cap 22, 6-7. 14)

Let us always be mindful of Christ's love

If Christ Jesus dwells in a man as his friend and noble leader, that man can endure all things, for Christ helps and strengthens us and never abandons us. He is a true friend. And I clearly see that if we expect to please him and receive an abundance of his graces, God desires that these graces must come to us from the hands of Christ, through his most sacred humanity, in which God takes delight.

Many, many times I have perceived this through experience. The Lord has told it to me. I have definitely seen that we must enter by this gate if we wish his Sovereign Majesty to reveal to us great and hidden mysteries. A person should desire no other path, even if he is at the summit of contemplation; on this road he walks safely. All blessings come to us through our Lord. He will teach us, for in beholding his life we find that he is the best example.

What more do we desire from such a good friend at our side? Unlike our friends in the world, he will never abandon us when we are troubled or distressed. Blessed is the one who truly loves him and always keeps him near. Let us consider the glorious Saint Paul: it seems that no other name fell from his lips than that of Jesus, because the name of Jesus was fixed and embedded in his heart. Once I had come to understand this truth, I carefully considered the lives of some of the saints, the great contemplatives, and found that they took no other path: Francis, Anthony of Padua, Bernard, Catherine of Siena. A person must walk along this path in freedom, placing himself in God's hands. If God should desire to raise us to the position of one who is an intimate and shares his secrets, we ought to accept this gladly.

Whenever we think of Christ we should recall the love that led him to bestow on us so many graces and favors, and also the great love God showed in giving us in Christ a pledge of his love; for love calls for love in return. Let us strive to keep this always before our eyes and to rouse ourselves to love him. For if at some time the Lord should grant us the grace of impressing his love on our hearts, all will become easy for us and we shall accomplish great things quickly and without effort.

WORLD MISSION MONTH 20 21 DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES 20 21 OCTOBER 24 2021
24 DE OCTUBRE 2021

“We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard” “No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído”
[ACTS 4:20] [UCR 4:20]

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year refers to the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel."

UN DOMINGO PARA TODO EL MUNDO

El mensaje de Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de esta año reflexiona sobre el tema: "No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído" (Hechos 4:20). Nos recuerda que "como Cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros," como "recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso baptismal de ser apóstoles generosos y gozosos del Evangelio."

ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

PRESENTS

JOSEPH PEARCE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2021

7:00 PM IN THE CHURCH

"THE QUEST FOR SHAKESPEARE: REVEALING HIS CATHOLICISM"

Shakespeare is arguably the greatest writer who ever lived. Now the secular culture is facing the shocking evidence that the Bard of Avon was a lifelong Catholic who resisted the anti-Catholic persecution of Elizabethan England and who weaved his Catholicism into his plays and poems. Discover the evidence that proves beyond any reasonable doubt that Shakespeare was a Catholic.

A native of England, Joseph Pearce is an internationally acclaimed author of many books, which include bestsellers such as:

The Quest for Shakespeare
Tolkien: Man and Myth
The Unmasking of Oscar Wilde
C. S. Lewis and The Catholic Church
Literary Converts
Wisdom and Innocence: A Life of G.K. Chesterton
Solzhenitsyn: A Soul in Exile
Old Thunder: A Life of Hilaire Belloc

His books have been published and translated into Spanish, Portuguese, French, Dutch, Italian, Korean, Mandarin, Croatian and Polish.

He has hosted two 13-part television series about Shakespeare on EWTN and has also written and presented documentaries on EWTN on the Catholicism of The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit. His verse drama, Death Comes for the War Poets, was performed off-Broadway to critical acclaim. He has participated and lectured at a wide variety of international and literary events at major colleges and universities in the U.S., Canada, Britain, Europe, Africa, and South America.

His personal website is <http://www.jpearce.co>
