Pastor's Corner

SING, SAYS ST. AUGUSTINE. SING!

From a discourse on the psalms by Saint Augustine, bishop

(Ps. 32, sermo 1, 7-8: CCL 38, 253-254)

Sing to God with songs of joy

Praise the Lord with the lyre, make melody to him with the harp of ten strings! Sing to him a new song. Rid yourself of what is old and worn out, for you know a new song. A new man, a new covenant—a new song. This new song does not belong to the old man. Only the new man learns it: the man restored from his fallen condition through the grace of God, and now sharing in the new covenant, that is, the kingdom of heaven. To it all our love now aspires and sings a new song. Let us sing a new song not with our lips but with our lives.

Sing to him a new song, sing to him with joyful melody. Every one of us tries to discover how to sing to God. You must sing to him, but you must sing well. He does not want your voice to come harshly to his ears, so sing well, brothers!

If you were asked, “Sing to please this musician,” you would not like to do so without having taken some instruction in music, because you would not like to offend an expert in the art. An untrained listener does not notice the faults a musician would point out to you. Who, then, will offer to sing well for God, the great artist whose discrimination is faultless, whose attention is on the minutest detail, whose ear nothing escapes? When will you be able to offer him a perfect performance that you will in no way displease such a supremely discerning listener?

See how he himself provides you with a way of singing. Do not search for words, as if you could find a lyric which would give God pleasure. Sing to him “with songs of joy.” This is singing well to God, just singing with songs of joy.

But how is this done? You must first understand that words cannot express the things that are sung by the heart. Take the case of people singing while harvesting in the fields or in the vineyards or when any other strenuous work is in progress. Although they begin by giving expression to their happiness in sung words, yet shortly there is a change. As if so happy that words can no longer express what they feel, they discard the restricting syllables. They burst out into a simple sound of joy, of jubilation. Such a cry of joy is a sound signifying that the heart is bringing to birth what it cannot utter in words.

Now, who is more worthy of such a cry of jubilation than God himself, whom all words fail to describe? If words will not serve, and yet you must not remain silent, what else can you do but cry out for joy? Your heart must rejoice beyond words, soaring into an immensity of gladness, unrestrained by syllabic bonds. Sing to him with jubilation

Safe Environment Program

St. Joseph Church & School is committed to ensuring a safe environment for our children and for upholding the “National Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People” All Volunteers who serve at Masses (Ushers, Lectors, Sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers) and all parish office volunteers must undergo a background screening and complete Safe Haven online training. Prior to volunteering, the parish must receive the clearance paperwork back from the Diocese of Charleston.

Please contact the parish office for forms.

Faith and Reason Study Group

The Church confirms that the Catholic Faith is grounded in reason, and that the grace of Faith builds on the foundation provided by reason. Come learn more.

Taught by Dr. Murray Daw (Dean's Distinguished Prof of Physics, Clemson). Learn what St. Thomas Aquinas called the "Preamble to the Faith". Ground your own faith.

Regular in-person meetings at St. Joseph's on Tuesdays 6:30-7:30 Jan 18-Apr 12. (Make-up/Zoom sessions on following Thursdays)

For more information, or to sign up, email daw@clemson.edu or call 864-772-0245. Sign up SOON so you can get the book ($12).

Catholic Book Discussion ~ January 2022

The Miracle of Marcelino is based on a pious Spanish legend. This short book tells the heartwarming story of an orphan left on a Franciscan monastery doorstep. We have limited copies of the book which we are sharing. At our January gathering we will watch the 1955 movie (dubbed in English) which was a Grand Prize Award winner at the International Cannes Film Festival. Come enjoy the movie (and popcorn!), even if you don't get the chance to read the book!

Come to either group: Thursday, January 6 3 pm
Thursday, January 6 6:30 pm
Where: Shook Center (office)

Contact Jan Heithaus in the parish office for more information. All are welcome to join in our book discussion whenever you are

Emmaus of the Carolinas

18th Men's Retreat: February 18th - 20th, 2022

Come and experience the journey to Emmaus as together we recognize Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread. Luke 24: 13-35

Q. Exactly what is Emmaus?

A. Emmaus is a retreat weekend designed for those men who feel they would like to explore a deeper relationship with God. Every one of us has considered the questions, "Does God really exist?" or "How should God's existence affect my life?" Unfortunately, we are all very busy and don't allow ourselves enough time to explore the answers. That's what the Emmaus retreat is for. The men organizing and hosting the Emmaus retreat are regular guys who will not try to convince you of their answers; instead they will share their own experiences with you and let you draw your own conclusions. We are not men born Holy, and we have each led very different lives. But, through the power of the Holy Spirit, we have found our way back to the Lord and would like to tell you about these life-changing experiences. For many of us, it was during an Emmaus Retreat that our hearts were touched by God.

Q. How do they go about doing this?

A. You will hear a series of talks by other men concerning their own experiences. You will have a chance to reflect, pray, and consider the bigger, really meaningful questions of life in a place that is far enough away to separate you from the distractions of everyday life, but close enough that you could be home in a matter of minutes.

Q. How long does the weekend last?

A. You'll need to arrive at the retreat location on the grounds of the YMCA Blue Ridge Assembly Center, 84 Blue Ridge Circle, Black Mountain, NC 28711, Friday, February 18th, 2022 between 6:00PM and 6:30 PM. The weekend will conclude no later than 5:00 PM on Sunday, February 20th, 2022. (More detailed directions will follow).

Q. How do I dress for the weekend and what should I bring?

A. Dress is extremely casual and comfortable. Bring a change of clothes for two days and your personal toiletries (toothbrush, soap, etc.). All else is provided.

Q. What about food?

A. All food and drink will be provided. When you arrive Friday evening there will be a light meal for those who will not have had time to grab dinner. If you have any special dietary requirements, let us know on the application form.

Q. How much does Emmaus cost?

A. The cost is $175.00. If you don't have the money, don't let this stop you. Inquire with us. Please note that Emmaus retreats have had waiting lists – get in your application and payment as soon as possible to confirm your reservation. One additional note, we are NOT able to accept credit card / electronic payments at this time.

Invest a bit of your time. Rethink, refocus, reflect, and find your way.

If you don't have time to make a retreat like this, means you NEED a retreat like this!

Any questions? Please contact the retreat leader Blas Miyares: blas.miyares@gmail.com or (864) 706-2880

What about God? One way, among many, you can help answer that question is with the Men's Emmaus Retreat that is led by men like you who have all struggled with the same questions about life that you have. The Emmaus Retreat is designed to be low-key, laid back, non-hostile, user-friendly, and not "preachy". You will listen to other men like yourself talk about their journey to know more about God. It is not required for you to be of any particular faith or church. The food is abundant, the place is calm and peaceful, and we know it will be a weekend that you will NEVER forget. Your time invested will pay huge dividends!

The cost of the weekend is $175. Please include full payment with your application so we can reserve your place, as space is limited. If you need help with payment, please contact us. Online applicants may pay at the door by cash or check, or contact the leader listed below. We are NOT able to accept credit card / electronic payments at this time.
