Pastor's Corner

From a homily by Saint John Chrysostom, bishop

(Ante exsilium, nn. 1-3; PG 52, 427*-430)

Life to me means Christ, and death is gain

The waters have risen and severe storms are upon us, but we do not fear drowning, for we stand firmly upon a rock. Let the sea rage, it cannot break the rock. Let the waves rise, they cannot sink the boat of Jesus. What are we to fear? Death? Life to me means Christ, and death is gain. Exile? The earth and its fullness belong to the Lord. The confiscation of goods? We brought nothing into this world, and we shall surely take nothing from it. I have only contempt for the world's threats, I find its blessings laughable. I have no fear of poverty, no desire for wealth. I am not afraid of death nor do I long to live, except for your good. I concentrate therefore on the present situation, and I urge you, my friends, to have confidence.

Do you not hear the Lord saying: Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst? Will he be absent, then, when so many people united in love are gathered together? I have his promise; I am surely not going to rely on my own strength! I have what he has written; that is my staff, my security, my peaceful harbor. Let the world be in upheaval. I hold to his promise and read his message; that is my protecting wall and garrison. What message? Know that I am with you always, until the end of the world!

If Christ is with me, whom shall I fear? Though the waves and the sea and the anger of princes are roused against me, they are less to me than a spider's web. Indeed, unless you, my brothers, had detained me, I would have left this very day. For I always say: Lord, your will be done; not what this fellow or that would have me do, but what you want me to do. That is my strong tower, my immovable rock, my staff that never gives way. If God wants something, let it be done! If he wants me to stay here, I am grateful. But wherever he wants me to be, I am no less grateful.

Yet where I am, there you are too, and where you are, I am. For we are a single body, and the body cannot be separated from the head nor the head from the body. Distance separates us, but love unites us, and death itself cannot divide us. For though my body die, my soul will live and be mindful of my people.

You are my fellow citizens, my fathers, my brothers, my sons, my limbs, my body. You are my light, sweeter to me than the visible light. For what can the rays of the sun bestow on me that is comparable to your love? The sun's light is useful in my earthly life, but your love is fashioning a crown for me in the life to come.

Catholic Book Discussion Group

Before the atrocities of the 1994 genocide, which left more than a million people dead, the Virgin Mary and Jesus Christ appeared to eight young people in the remote village of Kibeho, Rwanda. They warned of the coming bloodshed, but prophesized that it could be averted if Rwandans opened their hearts to God and embraced His love. The apparition to 3 of the children has been approved by the Church. The story has a message for the world.

Come to either group:      Thursday, October 6th    3:00 PM or 6:30 PM

THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-classed 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII For permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and make a surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her “Little Way.”

Craft Sale Acknowledgment

I understand that a $10 donation to St. Joseph's Church will reserve a table for the Holiday Craft Sale. If I cannot attend, I will let the representative of the Holy Family Group (Matthew Briggs mattandjess23@gmail.com) know by November 5th. If I cannot attend, I can request a refund of the donation or leave the donation for the church.

I understand that the Holiday Craft Fair set up time will be from 8:00 to 9:00 am on Saturday, November 12th, with the event lasting from 9:00 to 12:00. Clean up will be immediately after the event (to end by 12:30 pm) and I am responsible for setting up and cleaning up my table.

I understand that I am responsible for sales/transactions for my crafts. St. Joseph's Church will not collect funds for me during the sale.
