Divine Mercy Chaplet and Penitential Prayers, 3:00 in the Church

1. Today's Readings: Fourth Sunday of Easter | USCCB

2. The RE Corner with Jan Heithaus: Our next Eucharistic meditation for Sunday comes today from the saint whose feast day we celebrated yesterday, St. Catherine of Siena. She shares with us the blessed effects of receiving the Eucharist. These words of wisdom are from a Doctor of the Church.

3. Quotes of the Day:

~"Only faith can lift the veil and perceive the reality of Christ's presence and sacrifice." Dr. Taylor Marshall

~Once, St. Teresa was overwhelmed with God's Goodness and asked Our Lord "How can I thank you?" Our Lord replied, "ATTEND ONE MASS."

~"When we receive Holy Communion, we experience something extraordinary – a joy, a fragrance, a well-being that thrills the whole body and causes it to exalt." St. Jean Vianney

The Blessed Effects of Receiving the Eucharist

Saint Catherine of Sienna related what God spoke to her about the great benefits of receiving his Son in Holy Communion. Like a seal on hot wax, he instructs, the Sacrament leaves a divine impression on the soul.

See, dearest daughter, the excellent state of the soul who receives, as she should, this Bread of life, this food of the angels. By receiving this Sacrament, she dwells in me and I and her. Just as the fish is in the sea, and the sea is in the fish, so I dwell in the soul, and the soul in me, the peaceful sea.

In that soul grace dwells. Since she has received this Bread of life in a state of grace, my grace remains in her. After the appearance of bread has been consumed, I leave behind in you the imprint of grace like a seal that leaves behind its imprint when it's lifted from hot wax.

In this way, then, the power of this Sacrament remains in the soul- that is, the heat of my divine Love, and the mercy of the Holy Spirit. The wisdom of my only-begotten Son also remains there in you, by which the eye of your mind has been enlightened to see and to know the doctrine of my Truth. Together with this wisdom, you have a share in my strength and power, which fortify the soul against sensual self-love, against the devil, and against the world. So you see, the imprint remains when the seal has been taken away.

Through my divine arrangement and providence, the abyss of my loving desire for your salvation has come to meet your needs. I have given you my Son, sweet Truth himself, as food in this life, where you are pilgrims and travelers, so that you may have refreshment and not forget the benefit of the Blood. See then how tightly bound and highly obligated you are with me in return. Why? Because I love you so much, and as the supreme and eternal Goodness, I deserve your love.

in God's presence, consider...

How often do I take part in Holy Communion? If such wonderful benefits come from receiving our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, should I be receiving him this way more often?

Prayer: My Eucharistic Lord, you are a sea of peace and power. Draw me to yourself, so that I can plunge myself in your grace, and you can fill me to overflowing.
