PASTOR'S CORNER:

June 29, 2023

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am writing to address a growing issue. Today, there is a general misunderstanding of the burial and cremation processes and the Church's teachings on them. Many times, when a loved one passes away, there is confusion around what to do or how to proceed. Additionally, there is the question of how and where a burial ought to take place. I have heard so many times, "This is my first experience. I don't know what to do."

Death is a natural part of human existence. Christ, through his crucifixion and resurrection, conquered death and opened the gates of heaven. Because of this, as Catholics, we understand that death is not the end: it is the beginning of new and eternal life.

Just as the Church celebrates life through baptism, it also cherishes the lives of those who have gone before us through the Rite of Christian Burial. This is why it is important as Christians to be buried in the proper manner and place. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "The bodies of the dead must be treated with respect and charity, in faith and hope of the Resurrection" (#2300).

The Church permits cremation, provided that it does not demonstrate a denial of faith in the resurrection of the body. However, the Church encourages full-body burials as the preferred method to preserve the dignity of the person and to guard against abuse.

Today, only 33% of Catholics are having full-body burials. Every year that percentage decreases and other, morally unsound processes increase. These include:

1. Improper interment of ashes: It is a common practice not to bury cremated ashes. Some individuals keep ashes in their homes, scatter them in multiple areas or turn them into material objects.
2. Green burials: Green burials remove the emphasis from the human person and focus on the utility of a "sustainable" and "eco-friendly" burial.
3. Aqua cremation: This process involves discarding human remains via flushing a body out with chemicals and water, then returning its by-products to nature our prayers and our way of life.

These practices are morally illicit in all cases. Burying the dead is a corporal work of mercy, and the same dignity that is owed to our loved ones in life is owed to them after death. This is why we must bury our loved ones with the hope that one day they will share in Jesus' resurrection.

The Catholic Church has designated the appropriate place of burial: cemeteries that have been consecrated for this purpose. While the Church does permit burial in non-Catholic cemeteries, burial in the blessed ground of a Catholic cemetery is an extension of our baptismal promises. It gives witness, even in death, to faith in the Resurrection. I encourage you to consider this important matter and discuss it with your families.

If you have any questions or concerns, please turn to your priest for advice or reach out to my staff in the Office of Cemeteries.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

Has a loved one of yours left the Church? St. Monica has become synonymous with persistent, unflinching prayer for fallen-away family members. Her "club"—as Maggie Green calls it in her book—includes all who have a loved one leave the Faith and who have prayed without ceasing for their return. In this book, Maggie Green (herself a member of "the club") discusses how to stay constant in prayer, how to talk to fallen-away children and relatives, and how to hold fast to the virtue of hope when things look really bleak.

Are you a Catholic in good standing looking to move to the next level in your faith. I would like to invite you to join the worldwide Catholic movement called Cursillo.

What is the Cursillo movement? It's a deliberate act to bring Jesus Christ into the world. Members become agents for change in their families, work, neighborhoods, social gatherings and church. It starts with a weekend encounter with Jesus Christ in the company of other members of the movement. The weekend includes morning and night prayers, daily Mass, teaching, sharing, good food and great fellowship. It is not easy to describe an encounter with Christ, but speaking from experience, he will be there with you.

In our diocese, there are two weekend encounters each year for men and for women. The next Men's weekend is August 24th – 27th, and the next women's weekend is September 28th - Oct 1st. There is no cost for the weekend (that is right, no cost), however there is an application to complete and you need a sponsor, which I can help you with. If interested, drop me an email at chet.johns@siccs.net and I will drop you an application by email and answer any questions you have. I am hoping to participate personally in the next Fall men's weekend. De colores.

The last Engaged Encounter of the year is November 11-12 at St. Mary Magdalene in Simpsonville. This is an in-parish weekend, so couples are responsible for their own lodging. The cost is $160.00 per couple, and you do not need to be a member of the parish to attend. Please note that the weekends have been filling up two months in advance. Please go to our website to register: southcarolina.engagedencounter.com
