PASTOR'S CORNER:

From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

(Serm. 19,2-3: CCL 41, 252-254)

A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit

I acknowledge my transgression, says David. If I admit my fault, then you will pardon it. Let us never assume that if we live good lives we will be without sin; our lives should be praised only when we continue to beg for pardon. But men are hopeless creatures, and the less they concentrate on their own sins, the more interested they become in the sins of others. They seek to criticize, not to correct. Unable to excuse themselves, they are ready to accuse others. This was not the way that David showed us how to pray and make amends to God, when he said: I acknowledge my transgression, and my sin is ever before me. He did not concentrate on others' sins; he turned his thoughts on himself. He did not merely stroke the surface, but he plunged inside and went deep down within himself. He did not spare himself, and therefore was not impudent in asking to be spared.

Do you want God to be appeased? Learn what you are to do that God may be pleased with you. Consider the psalm again: If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it; in burnt offerings you will take no delight. Are you then to be without sacrifice? Are you to offer nothing? Will you please God without an offering? Consider what you read in the same psalm: If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it; in burnt offerings you will take no delight. But continue to listen, and say with David: A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit; God does not despise a contrite and humble heart. Cast aside your former offerings, for now you have found out what you are to offer. In the days of your fathers you would have made offerings of cattle — these were the sacrifices. If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it. These then, Lord, you do not want, and yet you do want sacrifice.

You will take no delight in burnt offerings, David says. If you will not take delight in burnt offerings, will you remain without sacrifice? Not at all. A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit; God does not despise a contrite and humble heart.

You now have the offering you are to make. No need to examine the herd, no need to outfit ships and travel to the most remote provinces in search of incense. Search within your heart for what is pleasing to God. Your heart must be crushed. Are you afraid that it might perish so? You have the reply: Create a clean heart in me, O God. For a clean heart to be created, the unclean one must be crushed.

We should be displeased with ourselves when we commit sin, for sin is displeasing to God. Sinful though we are, let us at least be like God in this, that we are displeased at what displeases him. In some measure then you will be in harmony with God's will, because you find displeasing in yourself what is abhorrent to your Creator.

Come to either group:
Meets Thursday, August 3rd
3:00 PM or 6:30 PM
In the Parish Office

Contact Jan.Heithaus@sjccs.net for more information.

Has a loved one of yours left the Church? St. Monica has become synonymous with persistent, unflinching prayer for fallen-away family members. Her "club"—as Maggie Green calls it in her book—includes all who have a loved one leave the Faith and who have prayed without ceasing for their return. In this book, Maggie Green (herself a member of "the club") discusses how to stay constant in prayer, how to talk to fallen-away children and relatives, and how to hold fast to the virtue of hope when things look really bleak.

Matrimony: Holy & Other

When: 30 September 2023, 8:30 am - Noon

Where: St. Mary’s Catholic Church – Greenville, South Carolina

Join the Center for Evangelical Catholicism for our 7th annual Fall Conference on Saturday 30 September as we address the most common questions and concerns that most people face regarding the sacrament of matrimony. The priests of St. Mary’s will unpack the theological basis for the Church’s teaching, but also address the very specific issues of ordinary life that challenge those seeking to live as disciples of Christ in the world today.

Speakers: Fr Jay Scott Newman and Fr Jonathan Duncan

Registration is required ($25 per person): <https://www.evangelicalcatholicism.com/conferences2/matrimony-holy-other>

Living the Beatitudes

"Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God."

Retreat

August 25-27, 2023

What is the Secret to True Happiness?

In his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus outlined the secret to true happiness in eight simple yet paradoxical blessings, or beatitudes. Deepen your appreciation of this divine wisdom and learn how to make these beatitudes a part of your daily life.

Thoughtful Meditations. Practical Applications.
Time to reflect on the sacred spaces and beautiful trails.
Plus Mass, Adoration, confession, and more...

CATHOLIC CONFERENCE CENTER

Are you a Catholic in good standing looking to move to the next level in your faith. I would like to invite you to join the worldwide Catholic movement called Cursillo.

What is the Cursillo movement? It's a deliberate act to bring Jesus Christ into the world. Members become agents for change in their families, work, neighborhoods, social gatherings and church. It starts with a weekend encounter with Jesus Christ in the company of other members of the movement. The weekend includes morning and night prayers, daily Mass, teaching, sharing, good food and great fellowship. It is not easy to describe an encounter with Christ, but speaking from experience, he will be there with you.

In our diocese, there are two weekend encounters each year for men and for women. The next Men's weekend is August 24th – 27th, and the next women's weekend is September 28th - Oct 1st. There is no cost for the weekend (that is right, no cost), however there is an application to complete and you need a sponsor, which I can help you with. If interested, drop me an email at chet.johns@sjccs.net and I will drop you an application by email and answer any questions you have. I am hoping to participate personally in the next Fall men's weekend. De colores.

The last Engaged Encounter of the year is November 11-12 at St. Mary Magdalene in Simpsonville. This is an in-parish weekend, so couples are responsible for their own lodging. The cost is $160.00 per couple, and you do not need to be a member of the parish to attend. Please note that the weekends have been filling up two months in advance. Please go to our website to register: southcarolina.engagedencounter.com
