December 12, 2023

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Diocese of El Obeid in Sudan, Africa, covers an area nearly a third larger than the state of Texas. They prioritized vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life at their 2019 annual pastoral conference to meet the needs of clergy and religious ministering to Catholics spread across such a large area.

With assistance from the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa, the Diocese of El Obeid recruited 15 new seminarians and four young women who entered the novitiate with the Congregation of Precious Blood Sisters in Nairobi, Kenya. One of the seminarian beneficiaries of the Solidarity Fund grant was ordained a deacon and others will be able to continue their studies.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa has been making real differences in the lives of Catholics throughout Africa for more than 15 years through its support of seminary training, formation of religious sisters and brothers, and other pastoral ministries that address the needs of the rapidly growing African Church.

We have several priests who have served or who are serving in the Diocese of Charleston from countries like Nigeria, Ghana and Kenya. When you participate in the collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa, you play a key role in forming today's seminarians to become the pastoral leaders of tomorrow.

The Church in Africa needs your help to ensure that it can educate and form men and women to minister to the faithful as the Church continues to grow there and around the world. I encourage you to support this fund through the collection offertory envelope or your parish's online offertory platform on the weekend of Dec. 16-17.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS

Bishop of Charleston
