THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. - Mk 1:44-45b

PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As Christians we are called to imitate Jesus, our savior, in all that we do, in words and deeds. In following his example, we can bring Christ's light to the world around us, even when it is not an easy task.

Jesus, true God and true man, taught us how to glorify the Lord through his surrender to the will of the Father. He shared in our humanity, experienced love, fellowship, pain and loss. He understands, deeply, about enduring suffering and betrayal. Through every part of his passion, he remained steadfast and united to his Father.

God intimately knows us, because "before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born, I dedicated you" (Jer 1:5). He created us and then chose to share in our human experience; therefore, we can be assured of his infinite care for his children. Though we are imperfect, he patiently waits for us to love him as he loves us. Even in illness and sorrow, he enables us to use our suffering to draw closer to him to prepare ourselves for eternity in his presence.

Jesus, while on earth, experienced the same emotions that we do, especially the ones who were looking to be comforted. He bore suffering to the glory of God, not uttering words of complaint even when abandoned and derided. We are called to bear up the crosses of our lives behind Christ, who leads us through the gates of paradise that he opened for us. We are, like the man who was crucified with Christ, invited to ask, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Lk 23:42).

When you or a loved one are sick, I urge you to cling to the sacraments. It is in these fonts of grace that we are renewed in the life of God. If we look after the health of our souls, we will be given the strength to endure, even to thrive, though we bear bodily burdens. For Christ himself said that when we take up his yoke and learn from him, we will find rest (Mt 11:29-30).

Please remember those who are going through mental illness. They need our ears to listen, hearts to accept, and arms to embrace them.

May the peace of Christ, who conquered death itself for our sakes, be enthroned in our hearts and minds. And, please be assured of my prayers for you.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

40 Days for Life: 40 Days for Life is a national, and international, campaign of prayer and fasting, of public vigil at abortion facilities, and of community outreach for the purpose of ending abortion. You are invited to join Christians throughout the Upstate in our spring campaign, February 14 – March 24. With the S.C. Supreme Court’s decision to uphold the Fetal Heartbeat Bill we have seen a dramatic drop in abortions in our state. However, abortions are still performed before a heartbeat is detected, for rape and incest, and fetal anomalies. We must continue to pray and draw attention to this human tragedy until life is protected from conception to natural death.

God tells us to deliver the helpless from destruction: “Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter” (Proverbs 24:11). Will you join us in fasting, and in praying outside the Greenville abortion facility?

The National Organization requires that those participating in a campaign sign a promise to conduct themselves in a peaceful, respectful manner. Be the ONE to make this a priority in your life and join us. Please visit: www.40daysforlife.com/greenville, or contact Judy 864-506-0964 or Ingrid 864-329-0044. Help spread the word to others about this important life-saving effort.

40 Days for Life Kickoff Rally: Tuesday, February 13, 6:30 – 7:45 pm, Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church, Guadalupe Hall, 3710 Augusta Road. (enter by way of Frontage Road)> Guest Speaker will be Mary Anne Moroney, registered nurse with a story to tell. Pastor Johnson of Greenville’s Church Without Walls will offer the opening prayer. Amy Schiera, mezzo-soprano and professional soloist and choral musician, will lead us in song. Deacon Bill Hudson from St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church will lead the closing prayer. Please join us! Parking is on the premises. Please visit: www.40daysforlife.com/greenville to sign up or contact Judy 864-506-0964 or Ingrid 864-329-0044. Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Catholic Appeal of South Carolina?

The Catholic Appeal of South Carolina (CASC) is a primary source of funding to help sustain and expand the ministries of the 95 parishes, 21 missions, 32 Catholic schools, and multiple ministries throughout the Diocese of Charleston and the state of South Carolina.

Can the funds raised by the Catholic Appeal be used for anything other than their stated purpose?

No! Donations to CASC are restricted for use to the stated ministries, programs and Catholic education only. Your donations directly support and grow these missions — they are not to “keep the lights on at the Chancery.”

Does my gift make a difference, even if it's small?

Yes! Each of us must discern what we can give in response to God's generosity to us. All intentional gifts are acts of good stewardship and faith. Together, everyone in the diocese makes a tremendous difference — accomplishing far more than any one of us could on our own. Mother Teresa reminded us, “Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love.”

LEARN MORE!

Please contact the Office of Stewardship & Mission Advancement charlestdiocese.org/catholic-appeal

843-261-0438 | catholicappeal@charlestdiocese.org

Why should people give to the Appeal?

God bestows gifts and talents on us to spread his love and to love our neighbors as ourselves. We are stewards of these gifts that include our time, talent and financial resources. Jesus taught us, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me’ (Mt 25:40). Let's go forth, together, as good stewards of God's grace and support each another!

Why do we need these ministries & programs?

The ministries supported by the Appeal provide tangible ways to assist many in need, to support Catholic education and formation of young people, to provide seminary training for our future priests, and grow our charitable Catholic community. We are called to serve and invite others into communion with Jesus Christ and his Church by living out the Gospel. The Catholic Church offers outreach and services to the needs of people in our diocese throughout the Palmetto State.

What's the difference between the Catholic Appeal of South Carolina & the Bicentennial Campaign?

The Church's mission is advanced in important ways through the Catholic Appeal of South Carolina and the Bicentennial Campaign. The Appeal supports the daily operation of critical ministries throughout our state. The Bicentennial Campaign funds more strategic, comprehensive, long-range and larger scale initiatives to help the Church serve its people and prepare for doing the Lord's work in the future.
