Feb. 12, 2024

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your generous support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection! It was established as the first National Collection in 1874 and has proven itself to be a successful vehicle for sharing the resources of the Church's members to provide for the needs of our African American, Native American and Alaska Native brothers and sisters.

Pope Francis reminds us that everyone is meant to evangelize. This collection so clearly authenticates his call to us to work as a family to help all our brothers and sisters and to share the love, faith and hope of Jesus Christ. As we embark on another year of evangelization in the African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities, everyone is encouraged to make a difference by offering their prayers for the fruitful support of the missions in the United States and to consider expressing Christian solidarity through a sacrificial offering.

We all know that never have the needs for African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities been so great. History tells us that lasting change in a community comes through faith, hope and charity. Your support provides the presence of missionaries here in parishes, schools, religious education programs and the many diocesan programs and projects that strengthen the work of the Gospel. Your partnership places Bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women and lay leaders. Your sacrifice impacts pastoral work across the United States and addresses the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations in our neighborhoods. It is only through the constant generosity of everyone that evangelization efforts are multiplied a thousand-fold.

We ask everyone to make a sacrificial gift to the 2024 National Black and Indian Mission Collection on the weekend of Feb. 17-18 and continue to support the evangelization efforts for African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities in the United States. Learn more at blackandindianmission.org and help us invite all peoples to open the door of faith and begin the journey of a lifetime!

Thank you again for your generous support.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
