EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.—Jn 20:5-7

PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

When our Lord Jesus selflessly gave up his life on the wood of the cross, the apostles were left without his guiding presence among them. It must have felt like the worst possible calamity; their leader, master and rabbi was dead. Each must have faced despair for what they thought was the end of the glorious coming of the Messiah. They hid and locked themselves away, fearing for their lives and pondering the meaning of Christ's ministry.

Like the apostles and the women that feared Jesus had been taken away, each of us experiences anxieties and fears. It is easy to become discouraged when we do not hear the voice of the Lord clearly in our hearts and minds.

Remember that on the third day, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus. Instead, they found the tomb open and empty. Then they encountered the Risen Savior, alive and glorified. Then and now, Jesus brought comfort to us, "Do not be afraid" (Mt 28:10). He reiterated these words when he appeared through a locked door before his friends: "Peace be with you" (Jn 20:19).

There is no burden we face in this life where our Risen Lord is not with us. We can overcome many things when we commit ourselves fully to Jesus, in whom we find our fullness and our strength. I encourage you to seek him out at the holy sacrifice of the Mass, in the tabernacles where he dwells, and in the faces of those who, like us, face fears and trials. Take courage, my friends. Cast your worries before him, for he is risen!

I pray that you and your loved ones have a most sacred and blessed Easter season.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

Trade your distractions for deeper peace.

Our culture today has no shortage of 'modern Pharaohs' that hold us back from true unity with God. If we're ruled by these Pharaohs, how can we truly be free to become the men God made us to be? Exodus 90 gives you the tools to take control of your life. It's a way out.

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

We have a great need for men (all ages) to serve as Altar Servers at all Masses.

Serving the Church is a wonderful way to grow closer to God. For the young, it is also an experience which may lead you to choose a Priestly Vocation. The Church is currently in great need of young men to enter the priesthood.

Become a part of a great ministry team, serving the Lord and His Church. We will begin training soon. Be sure to sign up even if you have served in the past but especially if you have never served. Please email me at chet.johns@sjccs.net so we can contact you with more information. Additionally, applications are available in the Narthex. Serving the Lord is a Joyful Vocation.

Marriage Tip #34

Marriages

last because two people make a choice:

to Keep it
to fight for it
And, to work for it.

HELPOURMARRIAGE.ORG

Rediscover Your Marriage – Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) simply means 'rediscovery'. The program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. 10's of 1000's headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending. Retrouvaille is not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering, but is anchored in Christian reconciliation, communication and healing.
