SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.” —Jn 15:16-17

PASTOR'S CORNER

From Cleaving to God by Saint Albert the Great

That one should not be concerned about feeling tangible devotion so much as about cleaving to God with one's will

Furthermore you should not be much concerned about tangible devotion, the experience of sweetness or tears, but rather that you should be mentally united with God within yourself by a good will in your intellect. For what pleases God above everything is a mind free from imaginations, that is images, ideas and the representations of created things. It befits a monk to be indifferent to everything created so that he can turn easily and barely to God alone within himself, be empty for him and cleave to him. For this reason deny yourself so that you can follow Christ, the Lord your God, in nakedness, who was himself poor, obedient, chaste, humble and suffering, and in whose life and death many were scandalised, as is clear from the Gospel accounts. After all, a soul which is separated from the body pays no attention to what is done to its abandoned body - whether it is burned, hanged, or reviled, and is in no way saddened by the afflictions imposed on the body, but thinks only of the Now of eternity and the One Thing which the Lord calls necessary in the Gospel. So you too should treat your body as if you were no longer in the body, but think always of the eternity of your soul in God, and direct your thoughts carefully to that One Thing of which Christ said, For one thing is necessary. (Luke 10.42) You will experience because of it great grace, helping you towards the acquisition of nakedness of mind and simplicity of heart. Indeed this One Thing is very much present with you if you have made yourself bare of imaginations and all other entanglements, and you will soon experience that this is so - namely when you can be empty and cleave to God with a naked and resolute mind. In this way you will remain unconquered in whatever may be inflicted on you, like the holy martyrs, fathers, the elect, and indeed all the saints who despised everything and only thought of their souls' security and eternity in God. Armed in this way within, and united to God through a good will, they spurned everything of the world as if their souls were already separated from their bodies. Consider from this how much a good will united with God is capable of, when by means of its pressing towards God the soul is effectively separated from the body in spirit and looks on its outward man as it were from a distance, and as not belonging to it. In this way it despises everything that is inflicted on itself or on its flesh as if they were happening to someone else, or not to a human being at all. For He that is united with the Lord is one Spirit, (1 Corinthians 6.17) that is with him. So you should never dare to think or imagine anything before the Lord your God that you would blush to be heard or seen in before men, since your respect for God should be even greater than for them. It is a matter of justice in fact that all your thoughts and thinking should be raised to God alone, and the highest point of your mind should only be directed to him as if nothing existed but him, and holding to him may enjoy the perfect beginning of the life to come.

Assistance Needed!!!

The St Joseph's Bereavement Committee is requesting additional volunteers join this ministry to help with funeral luncheons which serves as a Corporal Work of Mercy for burying the dead and serving a parish family during a difficult time. The following opportunities are available:

TEAM LEADERS – when notified, responsible for calling a team of 10-15 people to support a funeral luncheon. Additionally, if available, to help set up and clean up after the luncheon. Teams rotate.

TEAM MEMBERS – volunteer to prepare and deliver to the Parish Hall Kitchen a dish to be served to the family after the Funeral Mass and/or Interment. Dishes include salads, casseroles, bread and desserts.

If you would like to join us as we help these families, please call or text LeJean Carter at, 989-590-3965, or email at lejeanc59@gmail.com.

Thank you for helping us help others.

Spiritual Adoption
Week 7

"When Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. (And she exclaimed), 'when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.'" Luke 1:41, 44

By 7 weeks, the embryo has grown to about 10mm long from head to bottom of the spine. This is about 10,000 times bigger than when first conceived. The eyes and ears continue to develop and the brain continues growing rapidly. The baby's brain grows faster than the rest of the body which on average gains 250,000 cells per minute. Early neural connections permit the baby's first fetal movements seen as spontaneous arches and curls of the whole body.

"JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH, I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH. I BEG YOU TO SPARE THE LIFE OF THE PRE-BORN BABY THAT I HAVE SPIRITUALLY ADOPTED WHO IS IN DANGER OF ABORTION."

- PRAYER OF ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

Looking for a few good men (young and older)

Saint Joseph’s Catholic Church LITURGICAL MINISTRY

We have a great need for men (all ages) to serve as Altar Servers at all Masses.

Serving the Church is a wonderful way to grow closer to God. For the young, it is also an experience which may lead you to choose a Priestly Vocation. The Church is currently in great need of young men to enter the priesthood.

Become a part of a great ministry team, serving the Lord and His Church. We will begin training soon. Be sure to sign up even if you have served in the past but especially if you have never served. Please email me at chet.johns@sjccs.net so we can contact you with more information. Additionally, applications are available in the Narthex. Serving the Lord is a Joyful Vocation.
