ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.”—Mk 4:30-32b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On Father's Day weekend, June 15-16, we will take up a second collection for our diocesan seminarians. We are fortunate to have a large incoming class, and this Seminarian Fund covers the cost for each man's education, lodging, food and other resources necessary to pursue his vocation.

The Seminarian Fund is vital to the formation of our future priests. Those who benefit from this collection are answering a call to serve God and his people. They are responding to the Lord in dedicating their lives to the Gospel and serving as spiritual leaders for our communities.

You are directly helping these young men from your local parish on their journey toward the priesthood by contributing to the collection. Your generosity allows them to focus on studies and development. Our seminarians are not just students: they are upcoming shepherds and leaders of our Church who will play crucial roles in guiding and bringing us closer to God through the sacraments.

It is our responsibility as the Catholic community of South Carolina to support and encourage vocations, especially due to the national priest shortage. We are blessed to have so many seminarians. Let us show support for those who have heard and answered God's call.

Your generosity is crucial for their journey and the future of our Church. Thank you for your continued support and prayers for each one of our seminarians.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

28 seminarians will be in formation during the 2024-2025 year, and the number of men expressing interest in the priesthood is growing. Gifts to the Seminarian Fund exclusively provide funding for the total cost of education and living expenses for their years in formation.

Brown Scapular enrollment

Sunday,
July 14
at 12:30pm

What is the Brown Scapular?

Why should we wear it?

What does it mean to be enrolled in it?

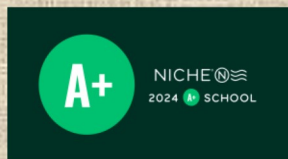

The Brown Scapular is a powerful sacramental; it is a sign of devotion to Mary and a pledge of her maternal protection. It is a sign of our commitment to our Catholic faith.

The brown scapular we currently use came from the “monastic scapular”, part of the habit of most religious orders, which is a long length of cloth suspended both front and back from the shoulders of the wearer and originally served as aprons for medieval monks. It was customary, especially during the Middle Ages, “for laypeople who belonged to confraternities, sodalities or third orders affiliated with religious orders to wear some sign of membership, usually derived from the religious habit such as a cord, cloak or scapular.” In time, as more and more lay people wanted affiliation with the Carmelite Order and its spirituality, the size of the scapular was reduced, making the “devotional scapular” easy for anyone wishing to do so, to wear it over their shoulders under their clothing.

Any baptized Catholic can be invested in the Confraternity of the Brown Scapular by a Catholic priest, which usually takes place during a short ceremony. Investiture in the Brown Scapular needs to be done only once. After that investiture, one may wear any scapular without it having to be blessed.

The Brown Scapular is not a magical charm to protect you. It is not an automatic guarantee of salvation. It is not an excuse for not living up to the demands of the Christian life. Rather, in wearing the Scapular, one is obligated to show a sincere commitment in following Jesus through the example of Mary, which means more than the occasional prayer in her honor.

“It is a permanent way of Christian living, made up of prayer and the interior life, frequent recourse to the sacraments and the concrete exercise of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy” (St. Pope John Paul II).

SJCCS Respect Life Committee Spiritual Adoption Week 13

Prayer to St. Joseph by Pope Francis
Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

At 13 weeks, a fetus is about the size of a peach, measuring around 7.4 cm long and weighing about 0.81 ounces. The head is about one-third the size of their body, and the reproductive organs are fully developed inside their body. The fetus's external features are also being finalized. Sometimes the baby will suck his thumb. This actually serves a purpose as it helps to develop their sucking reflex. They'll need this when it comes to feeding
