12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be Still!”
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
“Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith??—Mk 4:39-40

PASTOR’S CORNER

From the teachings of Saint Dorotheus, abbot

(Doct. 13, De accusatione sui ipsius, 2-3: PG 88, 1699)

On false spiritual peace

The man who finds fault with himself accepts all things cheerfully – misfortune, loss, disgrace, dishonor and any other kind of adversity. He believes that he is deserving of all these things and nothing can disturb him. No one could be more at peace than this man.

But perhaps you will offer me this objection: “Suppose my brother injures me, and on examining myself I find that I have not given him any cause. Why should I blame myself?”

Certainly if someone examines himself carefully and with fear of God, he will never find himself completely innocent. He will see that he has given some provocation by an action, a word or by his manner. If he does find that he is not guilty in any of these ways, certainly he must have injured that brother somehow at some other time. Or perhaps he has been a source of annoyance to some other brother. For this reason he deserves to endure the injury because of many other sins that he has committed on other occasions.

Someone else asks why he should accuse himself when he was sitting peacefully and quietly when a brother came upon him with an unkind or insulting word. He cannot tolerate it, and so he thinks that his anger is justified. If that brother had not approached him and said those words and upset him, he never would have sinned.

This kind of thinking is surely ridiculous and has no rational basis. For the fact that he has said anything at all in this situation breaks the cover on the passionate anger within him, which is all the more exposed by his excessive anxiety. If he wished, he would do penance. He has become like a clean, shiny grain of wheat that, when broken, is full of dirt inside.

The man who thinks that he is quiet and peaceful has within him a passion that he does not see. A brother comes up, utters some unkind word and immediately all the venom and mire that lie hidden within him are spewed out. If he wishes mercy, he must do penance, purify himself and strive to become perfect. He will see that he should have returned thanks to his brother instead of returning the injury, because his brother has proven to be an occasion of profit to him. It will not be long before he will no longer be bothered by these temptations. The more perfect he grows, the less these temptations will affect him. For the more the soul advances, the stronger and more powerful it becomes in bearing the difficulties that it meets.

A DECLARATION OF DEPENDENCE

TRUSTING GOD AMIDST
TOTALITARIANISM, PAGANISM, AND WAR

ARCHBISHOP
FULTON J. SHEEN

This Month's Selection "A Declaration of Dependence"

by Paul Glynn

Meets Thursday, July 11th
3:00 PM or 6:30 PM
In the Parish Office

"The fact is that what was self-evident to our Founding Fathers, namely, that rights are God-given and not State-given, is not regarded as self-evident today."

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

With his prescient wit, wisdom, and fervor, Archbishop Fulton Sheen provides clarity amid propagandist lies and pagan societies united in purpose to destroy. He reminds us why we must fear what kills the soul more than what kills the body. He exposes the false prophets and philosophies at work in the world and the many "believers" who no longer worship or act in accordance with their beliefs. .

Request from Deacon Chet

In August, I will be joining the staff of the school as a middle school science/math/religion teacher. I am returning to my roots as my journey started as a middle & high school science teacher. I am very excited for myself and the students. We are going to have an incredible year.

The request is to see if you can help in building this awesome science program. Some of you work in medical offices and may have models of various organs of the human body. I would be most happy to take available models to use in teaching. Brain, kidney, joints or bones, heart, we can make room for all. Also, if you have some medical or science equipment looking for a home this too can be donated. Things such as old microscopes, chemistry equipment, rock collections, fossils, globes and any other cool stuff.

The middle school science program is going to be completely different from anything previously offered at St. Joe's and will easily compete with anything currently being offered at the public schools. As always, thank you for your support of our school and spread the word. We have plenty of room for more and plenty of enthusiasm to go around. Peace be with you.

Brown Scapular enrollment

Sunday,
July 14
at 12:30pm

What is the Brown Scapular?

Why should we wear it?

What does it mean to be enrolled in it?

The Brown Scapular is a powerful sacramental; it is a sign of devotion to Mary and a pledge of her maternal protection. It is a sign of our commitment to our Catholic faith.

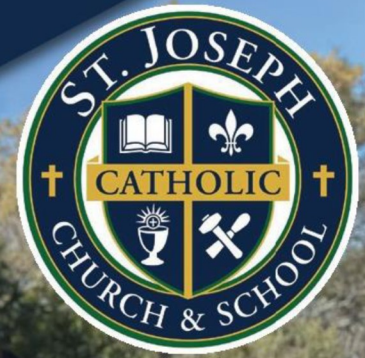

The brown scapular we currently use came from the “monastic scapular”, part of the habit of most religious orders, which is a long length of cloth suspended both front and back from the shoulders of the wearer and originally served as aprons for medieval monks. It was customary, especially during the Middle Ages, “for laypeople who belonged to confraternities, sodalities or third orders affiliated with religious orders to wear some sign of membership, usually derived from the religious habit such as a cord, cloak or scapular.” In time, as more and more lay people wanted affiliation with the Carmelite Order and its spirituality, the size of the scapular was reduced, making the “devotional scapular” easy for anyone wishing to do so, to wear it over their shoulders under their clothing.

Any baptized Catholic can be invested in the Confraternity of the Brown Scapular by a Catholic priest, which usually takes place during a short ceremony. Investiture in the Brown Scapular needs to be done only once. After that investiture, one may wear any scapular without it having to be blessed.

The Brown Scapular is not a magical charm to protect you. It is not an automatic guarantee of salvation. It is not an excuse for not living up to the demands of the Christian life. Rather, in wearing the Scapular, one is obligated to show a sincere commitment in following Jesus through the example of Mary, which means more than the occasional prayer in her honor.

“It is a permanent way of Christian living, made up of prayer and the interior life, frequent recourse to the sacraments and the concrete exercise of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy” (St. Pope John Paul II).

Scapulars will be available for purchase ($10)

Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist

(running time: 1hr 55mins)

Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist is enjoying an extended run in theaters, through JUNE 26th, locally at: Regal Starlight 141 Interstate Blvd, Anderson, SC 29621-2319 (Clemson Blvd, over 85, to interstate (gas station) across from Cracker Barrel) until June 26th, show times are 3pm & 6:50pm. Bring your family and friends - DON'T MISS IT!!!

"I'm incredibly grateful to the movie-goers for showing up! We need to show up again and with others. To those who have experienced the power of this movie, I implore you to be a Eucharistic evangelist for our film..."
Deacon Steve Greco, executive producer

SYNOPSIS: In each human soul, there exists an intense craving for connection, purpose, and love – a thirst that only God can satisfy. Yet, the question remains: How does one fulfill this yearning? The Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist is the most profound means by which God shares Himself with humanity. However, a 2019 Pew Research Study unveiled a concerning reality: only one-third of practicing U.S. Catholics believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. In “Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist,” we embark on a global journey to rediscover and revive the transformative power of the Eucharist. Engaging in dialogue with notable Catholic figures, the film explores the biblical origins of the Eucharist and shares personal stories of individuals whose lives have been transformed by the Blessed Sacrament. This exploration makes it unmistakably clear that THE EUCHARIST IS NOT MERELY A SYMBOL, but IS INDEED JESUS CHRIST HIMSELF – fervently desiring to quench our spiritual thirst with His boundless love. Fathom Events are NOT VALID with Regal Unlimited subscriptions.

SJCCS Respect Life Committee Spiritual Adoption Week 14

"You formed my inmost being: you knit me in my mother's womb. I praise you, because I am wonderfully made: wonderful are your works! My very self you know. My bones are not hidden from you. When I was being made in secret, fashioned in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw me unformed: in your book all are written down: my days were shaped, before one came to be". Psalm 139: 13-16

At 14 weeks, the baby is about 8.5cm long, about the size of an orange. They are now wiggling their toes, moving their arms and legs, sucking their thumb, and turning their head from side to side. The head is more round and more in proportion with the rest of the body. The baby may also be making facial expressions. The kidneys are making urine, and the liver and spleen are functioning. This week, the baby is growing lanugo, a thin, peach fuzz-like hair all over, which will help keep their body warm.

"JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH, I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH. I BEG YOU TO SPARE THE LIFE OF THE PRE- BORN BABY THAT I HAVE SPIRITUALLY ADOPTED WHO IS IN DANGER OF ABORTION."
PRAYER OF ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

Abortions continue to be performed daily at the Greenville Women's Clinic. If you are able, select a day and time that works for you and continue with us for 40 Days 365 at the abortion facility. We are there from 8:00 am until 3:00 pm. Please sign up on the 40 Days for Life 365 Calendar at www.40daysforlife.com/greenville
We need sidewalk advocates and prayer warriors there daily beyond the 40 Days Campaigns. Help spread the word to others about this important life-saving effort.
