PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

May the peace, the hope and the joy of the Easter Season be upon you, now and forever!

Imagine Jesus' tomb, with its heavy stone rolled back, and the fear and confusion the two apostles must have felt as they rushed back to Mary and the other disciples.

"They have taken my Lord, and I don't know where they laid him!" cried Mary Magdalene, as she sought Jesus. Their worries disappeared when Jesus came to them with a message of hope — Be not afraid! Through the suffering, death and resurrection of our triumphant Lord, we are given an opportunity to experience life in God's grace and mercy.

As we celebrate the octave of Easter and continue to journey together through Via Fidelis, ask someone, either older or younger than you, about their experiences growing up Catholic. This will deepen your understanding of the faith, so that we give thanks together for the great gift of life that he has given.

And, in a special way on Divine Mercy Sunday, make the effort to show forgiveness to others and tell them that they are loved by their Father in heaven. Remember to make the "invisible God visible" through your witness as a believer in the Resurrected Christ.

I wish you and your families a blessed Easter season.

He is risen! Truly, he is risen!

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

UNDERSTAND THE FAITH YEAR 2 STUDY GUIDES

Monthly study guides can be used in personal prayer and for small group reflection.

APRIL 2026

SCRIPTURE

Read: Malachi 3:6-12

REFLECT:

1. In this passage, the Lord, through the prophet Malachi, contrasts his own unchanging character with the changing affections and varying fidelity of his people. How is this perhaps reflected in our own experiences?
2. The Lord also accuses his people of robbing him by refusing to support the Temple through tithes. Do you think there is more to this accusation than simply monetary concerns? How might this be applicable in our own time?
3. This passage ends with a promise for prosperity at least in terms of agricultural abundance. What does it mean to trust in God's promises? What happens when God fulfills promises in a way or in a timeframe that differs from our expectations?

READ: A selection from Via Fidelis — Chapter 4

God, however, is the author of all things, and he is unchanging. As the prophet Malachi gives witness: "For I the Lord do not change" (3:6). And God desires to teach us so that we can know him and his way, as the Lord Jesus told us: "The Advocate, the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name — he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (Jn 14:26). By knowing the Lord's unchanging truth, he becomes a rock and fortress for us, as the Psalmist sings: Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer, My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, my saving horn, my stronghold! (Ps 18:2)

We cannot love what we do not know. We cannot give to others what we ourselves do not have. And so, we must be true disciples and learn from the Lord. We must let him teach us and show us his way. We are called to trust him and accept his divine guidance and love. As Christians, we must be vigilant and alert, so as not to be caught off-guard (see 1 Pt 5:8). We need to stay close to the Lord and let his teachings be a lamp to our feet (see Ps 119:105).

As the Lord Jesus says to us: "If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (Jn 8:31-32). While the faithful must be attentive to the fallen world around them, the Via Fidelis is not the way of paranoia, fear, repression or misery. It is the way of prudence, filial boldness, freedom and joy! We cannot know this way unless we know Jesus Christ and accept him as our teacher, prophet and companion.

REFLECT:

1. This selection begins with an appeal to the passage from Malachi that we discussed. What does it say about how we place our trust in God?
2. In this selection, the bishop emphasizes that we cannot give what we do not have. What do you think this means and what are the implications of this for our lives?
3. In this selection, while urging us toward vigilance, the bishop also emphasizes that the "faithful way" is a way of "prudence, filial boldness, freedom and joy" and not one of "paranoia, fear, repression or misery." How can we embody this in our way of life?

TREASURY OF THE CHURCH: THE DEPOSIT OF FAITH

*Read the Catechism of the Catholic Church
50-53, 68-69, 76, 80-83, 97, 105-108, 135-136*

- Divine Revelation is transmitted to us through Apostolic Tradition:
  - Apostolic Tradition is the communication of Christ's message, beginning with the Apostles, who entrusted all they received from Christ and the Holy to the Church
- Apostolic Tradition is transmitted through sacred Scripture and sacred Tradition
- Together, Scripture and Tradition form the one "Deposit of Faith"
- God is the author of sacred Scripture, which is written by human authors under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit
- Both the Old and New Testaments form the canon of sacred Scripture and together communicate God's plan of salvation for the World
- The Old Testament prepares for the New Testament while the New Testament fulfils the Old Testament
- In addition to the written words of Scripture, the Apostolic Tradition is also communicated through the living transmission of faith, which we refer to as "Tradition" or "Sacred Tradition"
- Both Scripture and Tradition communicate the Word of God and are rooted the Gospel Proclamation (kerygma)

DEFINE: PASCHAL TRIDUUM

We use the term Triduum to refer to the three-day period of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday which culminates with the celebration of the East Vigil. In a special way, the whole Church enters into Christ's Paschal mystery of his passion and resurrection. We use the term paschal, meaning Passover, because Christ's saving death and resurrection fulfill all of God's saving work in the Old Testament, of which the Passover of Exodus has a special place even as it is practiced in Judaism today. The Paschal Triduum is considered the high point of the Liturgical Year.

Feasts & Solemnities

APRIL 2: HOLY THURSDAY

On Holy Thursday, we celebrate the Last Supper during which the Eucharist was instituted as Jesus' Paschal sacrifice. It is sometimes referred to as Maundy Thursday. Maundy comes from the Latin mandatum (command), referring to the "new commandment" Jesus gives at the Last Supper shortly after washing his disciples' feet. This command is "to love one another as he has loved us" (Jn 13:34-35). After this celebration, the Eucharistic Prayer is not prayed again until the Easter Vigil.

APRIL 3: GOOD FRIDAY

We refer to Good Friday as "good" because of the goodness of Jesus' complete gift of self on the cross. At the celebration of the Lord's passion, the Eucharist is distributed, but Mass is not offered.

APRIL 4: HOLY SATURDAY

A day of silence, Holy Saturday is meant to be an opportunity to enter into the mystery of Christ's with hopeful expectation. The feeling of absence, that comes from the lack of daily Mass being offered, points us to the reality of Christ's death — in turn, it means that his resurrection is also real.

APRIL 4: THE EASTER VIGIL

Our celebration of Easter begins at sundown on Holy Saturday with the Easter Vigil. In this celebration, we experience the light of Christ and recall God's saving work throughout all of "salvation history" through the readings. As we recall God's saving work and will that find the fullest expression in Christ himself and the Paschal mystery, this celebration is a time when new Christians join Christ in his death and resurrection through baptism.

APRIL 25: ST. MARK THE EVANGELIST

Early Christian writers tell us that St. Mark, the evangelist behind the Gospel of Mark, was a companion of St. Peter, and his account of Jesus' ministry is possibly that of St. Peter. St. Mark's remains are currently thought to be in the city of Venice. The winged lion often used to represent Mark's Gospel in iconography is the symbol of the city of Venice.

Is my Marriage Recognized by the Church?

Like other couples in your parish or family, you may be wondering if your marriage is fully recognized by the Catholic Church. Catholic Church law ordinarily requires baptized Roman Catholics to marry before a priest or deacon. Unless they received a “dispensation from canonical form,” Catholics who exchange vows in the presence of ministers from other religious traditions or civil officials are not considered validly married in the eyes of the Catholic Church.

Regardless of what happened in the past, the Catholic Church invites you to bring new meaning to your lives by embracing the vocation of marriage and dedicating your family’s mission to sharing God’s love.
